

95% ARCTIC CONDENSING BOILER FLOWS INTO MARKETPLACE

A condensing boiler built to last. The Arctic combines industry renown longevity of watertube designs with minimal waterside pumping requirements of today's firetube designs promoting smaller pump selections, greater electrical savings, and accommodative to full or variable primary piping layouts.

Our stainless steel, single-piece design has no welds for potential leakage that also make the boiler shock-proof and field repairable. The only repairable condensing boiler in the market.

The Arctic features our newest commercial boiler control platform, Concert. It raises the bar for other controls to achieve with unique, specifiable advanced features that put your heating system in tune.

Learn more about the industry's only condensing boiler built to last, meet electrical-conscious system designs and fit full or variable flow piping arrangements. The watertube with firetube pump sizes, now you can have high efficiency and peace of mind with long lasting performance. Go to our website to see how we deliver on both at www.thermalsolutions.com .

